The Book of Joy is a book that was written by the Dalai Lama, Desmond Tutu, and Douglas Abrams. The book focuses on the importance of joy in our lives and how we can cultivate it. The lecture and panel discussions will feature various speakers discussing the book and its themes. The library exhibits and art experiences will provide a platform for further exploration of the book's themes. The film screenings will also be held, featuring discussions of the book in a filmic context. The service opportunities provide an opportunity for students to engage with the book's message in a practical and meaningful way.
